

IAH Quiz

Each quiz will be worth a .5 (one-half) CEU!

The Indiana Accredited Horticulturist Committee is pleased to provide you an opportunity to earn CEUs (continuing education units) in each issue of the Indiana Nursery and Landscape News.

The IAH quiz offered in each issue can be completed by anyone who is an "Active" (current) IAH (initial or masters).

Each quiz will be worth a .5 (one-half) CEU (continuing education unit) for the completion of the bi-monthly quiz with a pass rate of 80%. Over a 2-year period, you could earn up to 6 CEUs if you take and pass every quiz!

The INLA office will grade the quiz. Questions and answers have been provided by the IAH committee.

Thank you and good luck studying!

The Indiana Accredited Horticulturist Committee

Chair

- George Brenn, Four Seasons Landscaping Nursery

Committee Members

- Brian Bunge, Twixwood Nursery
- Gabriel Gluesenkamp, Designscape Hort Services
- Wayne Gruber, Niemeyer's Landscape Supply
- Jim Messmer
- Melissa Mravec, Allen Landscape
- Jodie Overmyer, Marshall County Soil and Water

IAH QUIZ: JANUARY/FEBRUARY 2021

Due: February 28, 2021

Complete the quiz and email or mail to INLA by the deadline above. Be sure to write your name, IAH number, and contact information on the bottom of the quiz when submitting.

1. Landscape design is the art of creating a _____ and aesthetically pleasing environment for human use.
2. Good landscaping is an _____ that increases in _____ over time.
3. A site inventory considers the physical characteristics of a property, including topography, existing _____ and structures, as well as features that exist beyond property lines.
4. A site analysis considers opportunities and constraints of an existing site including views, need for visual _____, drainage, value of existing vegetation and structural _____ of existing or proposed buildings.
5. The term balance, as a function of landscape design, refers to equalization of viewed components: a landscape design cannot be composed entirely of _____.
6. When selecting plants for a landscape design, there are 4 primary characteristics that must be considered, including _____, form, _____ and texture.
7. Other considerations for selecting plants include hardiness, soil requirements, _____ requirements, _____ requirements, and fertility needs, as well as susceptibility to insects or _____.
8. Maintenance of landscape plants is _____, but maintenance can be _____ through appropriate consideration of plants and materials.
9. The most commonly used scale for residential landscape design projects are 1" = ____' and ____ " = 1'.
10. Plants serve functions in a landscape, including Architectural, Climatic and _____.

Name: _____

IAH No.: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Send answers to: info@inla1.org -or- mail to INLA, 7915 S. Emerson Ave., #247, Indianapolis, IN 46237